ACADEMIA MARIA REINA is a private, Catholic, college preparatory school for girls in grades seven through twelve. It is owned and operated by the Sisters of St. Joseph of Brentwood, New York. The school was founded in 1966. In 1989, the school received the Excellence in Education Award conferred by the Council of American Private Education.

MISSION STATEMENT

Academia María Reina, a Catholic secondary school of academic excellence for young women, aims to develop leaders who will serve as agents of change in our society, firm in their faith and convictions and steeped in the charism of the Sisters of St. Joseph of Brentwood, New York.

GRADUATION REQUIREMENTS

Students must have completed 29.5 credits in order to graduate:

Religion	4 credits
